BOARD CHARTER

The Board of Directors is appointed by Shareholders and is responsible for the activities of the company in accordance with legal and regulatory requirements and the company's constitution.

ROLE OF THE BOARD

The primary role of the Board is to create shareholder wealth (with a long term bias) and in that context to have due regard to the interests of other stakeholders. The Board achieves this by:

- providing leadership of the company through setting the company's direction, strategies, and financial objectives within a framework of prudent and effective controls which enable risk to be assessed and managed.
- ensuring that the Company has effective processes and systems in place to enable the Board to plan strategically, review current strategy, consider alternative strategies, monitor corporate performance and capabilities and oversee the management of risk.
- setting, overseeing and maintaining the Company's values, corporate governance framework; compliance with regulatory and ethical standards and ensuring that these are adhered to, in the interests of the company's shareholders, employees, customers, suppliers and the communities in which it operates.
- safeguarding the reputation of the Company.
- ensuring there is an effective balance between the delegation of responsibility for the day to day operation and management to the CEO and the role of the Board in monitoring, guiding and providing oversight.
- ensuring that the necessary financial and human resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives.
- ensuring that the performance of management, and the Board itself, is regularly assessed and monitored.
- promoting a culture where transparent and timely information is shared between management and Board and where there is opportunity to challenge views, assumptions and beliefs in an environment of trust, respect and openness.
- ensuring effective communication with shareholders.
- appointing, terminating and reviewing the performance of the CEO.

COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD

The Board should comprise Directors with an appropriate range of skills, experience and expertise who have a proper understanding of and competence to deal with the current and emerging issues of the business, and who can effectively review and challenge the performance of management and exercise independent judgment.

There is no maximum term for Directors however one third of Directors (other than a Managing Director) shall retire on a rotational basis at each annual general meeting (as per the Company's constitution).

Directors will receive a letter of appointment which sets out the terms and conditions of their appointment.

Selection of Directors

Candidates for Board positions shall be nominated by the Chairman (in the absence of a Remuneration & Nomination Committee) for consideration by the Board.

In selecting new members for the Board, Directors shall have regard to the appropriate skills and characteristics needed by the Board as a whole. The Directors shall endeavour to appoint individuals who would provide the mix of Director characteristics and diverse experiences, perspectives and skills appropriate for the company.

COMMITTEES

The Board will appoint committees considered necessary to provide recommendations to the Board on any aspect of the Company's activities it considers necessary in accordance with the Company's constitution, principles of sound governance and the Corporation's Act.

The Board has appointed an Audit Committee with clearly defined responsibilities and accountabilities. The function of Remuneration and the function of Nomination and Health, Safety and Environment will be dealt with by the Board as whole.

AUTHORITY

The Board is authorised to:

- investigate and review any matters within the Company's activities;
- seek information from any Director, officer or employee of the Company or its affiliates or from any advisor, agent or representative of any of them.

ACCOUNTABILITIES

In undertaking its role and fulfilling its responsibilities, the matters reserved to the Board include, but are not limited to, the following:

- approving annual operating plans (including objectives, goals and strategies) and regularly reviewing achievement against plan.
- approving capital requirements.
- delegating certain authorities to management and monitoring the exercise of these authorities.
- approving remuneration of the CEO and Directors (within member approved limit).
- approving capital structure and dividend policy.
- approving half yearly accounts, full year accounts and annual report to members.
- considering management proposals, including material capital expenditure and divestments and providing advice and approvals where appropriate.
- maintaining corporate and Board values to ensure the Company acts with the highest ethical standards and integrity in accordance with all legal and regulatory requirements and otherwise in accordance with those management and government best practices appropriate to its business.
- approving and monitoring compliance with the Company's policies, charters and codes.

INDEPENDENT ADVICE

The Board or individual Directors (with the approval of the Board which will not be unreasonably withheld), may obtain independent professional advice it considers necessary, with the costs to be borne by the Company.

RESPONSIBILITY OF INDIVIDUAL DIRECTORS

All Directors must comply with their corporate and legal duties and obligations when discharging their responsibilities as Directors. These include:

- acting in good faith and in the best interests of the Company as a whole.
- acting with care and diligence and for proper purpose.
- refraining from making improper use of information gained through the position of Director and from taking improper advantage of the position of Director.
- avoiding conflicts of interest wherever possible and where conflicts arise complying with statutory and corporate duties regarding disclosure and voting.

BOARD MEETINGS

The Directors shall hold meetings as required.
